Explanation:

1. Related fees for accommodation application

- (1) The accommodation deposit shall be paid when applying for the dormitory.
- (2) The basic fee should be paid together with the accommodation fee and cannot be paid separately.
2. The basic fee is $500 NTD, including personal electricity fee, water fee, and related expenses in public areas. Those who exceed the personal electricity fee will be charged according to the actual electricity meter reading in the dormitory. The remaining balance will not be refunded if not fully used.
3. During the period of staying in the dormitory (including short-term accommodation during winter and summer vacations), you should abide by the regulations, management measures and living conventions of the student dormitory. If there is any damage to public property, you should compensate according to the price and take full responsibility for your actions.
4. When moving into the dormitory, please complete the personal dormitory property inventory and self-check the condition of the public property according to the inventory list of the dormitory.
When applying to move out, it is also necessary to pass the property inventory and cleaning inspection before the move-out process can be completed.
