Section VI (Implementation)	1	The accommodation deposit is valid for one school year. At the end of each semester, the status of the room is checked on site, the electricity consumption is recorded, and any remarks shall be noted.

Essentials)	2	At the end of each semester, all the individual and public areas shall be inspected, and the electricity usage shall be recorded. At the end of the school year, all fees violations shall be added up and posted at the beginning of the next school year. Any penalties or fees shall be deducted from the security deposit. If the security deposit is insufficient, the difference must be paid. (If a person only lives in the dormitory for one semester, the total amount of fees to be paid shall be announced at the beginning of the next semester. The deposit will be refunded, and the difference must be paid off.)
	3	The date of inspection will be announced in advance, and those who fail to adhere to the rules shall be fined accordingly. Pictures will be taken as evidence. If a person corrects their mistake after it has been recorded, the penalty shall still be given.
	4	If the accumulation of fines exceeds the security deposit, items are found to be severely damaged, unrepairable, or the room is too messy, then the person shall be responsible for paying the difference.
	5	Individuals are responsible for all public property in the dormitories. At the beginning of the semester, a property online confirmation sheet shall be given and used to confirm that everything is in order upon moving into the room. Any punishment shall not be waived on the basis of being uninformed. If malicious damage to public property is severe, a separate case shall be appointed. Do not try to find out what happens by yourself.
	6	In addition to the parts where each individual is responsible for the violation standards: If it can be proven that someone else/no one is at fault, the respective fees shall be waived, or the person (or persons) responsible shall be charged instead. If the violators are not from the corresponding room, they will be required to sign for a compensation payment. However; those who cannot prove or verify their fault, shall be fined accordingly.
	7	If an individual violates Articles 3 to 5 from the above deduction criteria, and the accumulated amount is more than NTD800, they shall be subjected to four hours of community service in the dormitory area, which must be completed within the specified time limit.
	8	If an individual drops out of living in the dormitories halfway (not after the end of the school year's second semester), such as by suspension, expulsion or graduation, their security deposit shall be returned after applying with the Student Living Services Division. If the individual drops out of the dormitory and is not part of the above stated reasons, their security deposit shall not be returned.
